

Neighbors in the sun

Assar was fast
the fastest of them all
The way he was running in the snow

Cooler than the northmen in the north
Taller than the southern guy

Now he's an older man only running in his mind
Dreaming his age away

Cooler than the northmen in the north
Taller than the southern guy

Neighbors in the sun

If Assar was alive
he could sit here in the sun
And maybe he would run on the beach

Cooler than the northmen in the north
Taller than the southern guy

Neighbors in the sun
