

iamdirty

Well there was some time today since Jesus came my way to show me all his noble dreams but where is he today not under my bed is he under yours or is he dead like all the rest of us down here

I used to read this bible I got from my ma and which she got from her pa so I thought that it was magical and when I heard a voice speaking to me I thought that it was God who spoke to me that way

I am followed by shadows in my soul
Whenever I'm religious they stare at me from behind the walls

Well there was some time today since Jesus came my way to show me all his noble dreams but where am I today not under Jesus's wings I'd rather say he's under mine cause I feel crucified like him

But if you are alive somewhere please let me sing out my despair for losing everything this culture tells me I should win don't make me feel like I was guilty to a sin don't stare from behind the walls

I am guilty for I am alive
And I am dirty and in the dirt I shall survive
